THE MUSICAL SEASON

UNTIL JULY 2025

May 16th, 1770, the Royal Opera was inaugurated for the wedding celebrations of the Dauphin, future King Louis XVI, and Archduchess Marie-Antoinette. A backdrop for monarchical – and then republican – life, throughout its history it has hosted festivities, performances, and parliamentary debates.

The shows, designed with this history in mind and especially for this unique venue, conjure up the era when Versailles was one of the main centres of musical creation in Europe.

Today, the Royal Opera hosts more than 100 performances throughout the music season, including operas (in staged and in concert version) recitals, plays, and ballets. William Christie, Sébastien Daucé, Vincent Dumestre, Franco Fagioli, Leonardo García Alarcón, Thierry Malandain, Hervé Niquet, Raphaël Pichon, Angelin Preljocaj, Florie Valiquette, Sonya Yoncheva, and all the other big names and international performers take it in turns to walk this prestigious stage.

Tickets for professionals, groups, and works councils are available on request, 10 tickets or more.

THE ROYAL OPERA ACADEMY

The goal of the Royal Opera Academy is to train the artists of tomorrow!

ACADEMY OF MUSIC AND SINGING

For its first edition in 2023, the Royal Opera Academy of Baroque music and opera singing is teaming up with several artists to offer musicians and singers the opportunity to cultivate and develop their art.

The selected artists take part in various shows at the Royal Opera, such as the Royal Serenade of the Hall of Mirrors and the King's Tour (theatrical visits), the Fêtes Galantes (fancy-dress evening), l'Opéra Partagé, and many other projects.

During their two years at the Academy, graduates will attend masterclasses in singing, continuo, and stage direction. These classes are given by prestigious artists: Mathias Vidal, Thomas Dunford, Myriam Rignol, Stéphane Fuget, Justin Taylor and Marshall Pynkoski.

On April 20th, 2024, the Academy's first set of graduates staged Purcell's Dido and Æneas, staged by Charles di Meglio in the Hall of Mirrors. It was an unforgettable evening. They will be back on June 16th, 2025 with Charpentier's Actéon, for a wonderful evening of passion and talent!

BAROQUE DANCE ACADEMY

In keeping with the cultural history of the Château de Versailles, baroque dance, which was born within these walls, has its rightful place within the artistic programme. Château de Versailles Spectacles has joined forces with Pierre-François Dollé to offer around twenty dancers the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of this artform, and to cultivate and enrich their own choreographic vocabulary.

The prize for the selected dancers is to participate in the two theatrical visits, the King's Tour in winter and the Royal Serenade of the Hall of Mirrors every Saturday in summer, which together represent around thirty performances, as well as Les Fêtes Galantes and some of the productions in the Royal Opera's musical season.

THE ROYAL OPERA ORCHESTRA AND CHOIR

Made up of musicians who regularly work with the greatest conductors in the world, in both the Baroque and Romantic repertoires, the Orchestra of the Château de Versailles Royal Opera is regularly in the pit at the Royal Opera, but also in various other configurations for concerts and recordings.

The Royal Opera Orchestra will be centre stage this season, with more than twenty productions and over 40 performances! It will also be involved in the creation of new 'in-house productions' of operas in staged version:

• Carmen • La Fille du régiment • Dido and Æneas • Polyphème

The Orchestra also has a busy touring schedule, allowing its talented musicians to shine across France and abroad. It has performed at the Salle Gaveau, the Palau de la Música Catalana in Barcelona, the Gstaad Festival, South Korea, China, the Floréal d'Épinal, Hanoi, the Valloire Baroque Festival, the Abbaye du Thoronet, Cahors, Prades, Bauges, Uzès, and the Sablé Festival. The Orchestra will shortly be going on tour in the United States and Canada for the first time.

Major ensembles on the Château de Versailles Spectacles label, the Orchestra and the Royal Opera Choir have recorded Zingarelli's Romeo and Juliet (CD and DVD) conducted by Stefan Plewniak, Mozart's Don Giovanni with Gaétan Jarry, Boismortier's Les Cantates des Saisons conducted by Chloé de Guillebon, and Vivaldi's The Four Seasons with Andrés Gabetta.

The Royal Opera Choir was founded in 2022 for the spectacular project Gloire Immortelle conducted by Hervé Niquet, thus establishing a vocal complement for the Orchestra. It has subsequently taken part in several projects and recordings for the Château de Versailles Spectacles label, including Les Génies de Mademoiselle Duval and Dis-moi Vénus with Marie Perbost.

Come and see the Royal Opera Choir perform in six productions during the 2024-2025 season!

The CHÂTEAU DE VERSAILLES SPECTACLES COLLECTION

LABEL OF THE YEAR

There is only one word for this collection, with its enticing repertoire, superb ensembles and artists, excellent-quality recordings, and equally lavish presentation, and that is 'Versaillaise'!

International Classical Music Awards 2022

Created in 2018, the Château de Versailles Spectacles recording collection now includes more than a hundred recordings and filmed performances, all taken in the finest venues at the Château de Versailles: the Royal Opera, the Royal Chapel, the Hall of Mirrors, etc. Opera productions, high-profile concerts, and intimate chamber music are all part of a programme in which European Baroque music - and in particular French repertoire - reigns supreme.

More and more recordings are being made in this royal setting, and are regularly praised by the French and international press. In 2022, a year of recognition for the record label, Château de Versailles Spectacles was awarded the 'Label of the Year' prize by the prestigious International Classical Music Awards for the overall quality of its collection. Discover this musical repertoire, another of Versailles' little-known legacies!
